SPAMALOT! (Concert-ish Version)

Last summer brought cancellations and an empty barn. Eric Idle has recrafted SPAMALOT to address social distance restrictions, and this summer, we return to the barn stage with this new hilarious version. This "concert-ish" version of SPAMALOT is intended to be played to a socially separated audience by a cast of socially separated actors, appropriately placed.

The cast has been selected and what a cast it is! This year they will be accompanied by recorded orchestration to further manage restrictions and ensure the safety of the audience and the cast and crew.

As Theatrical Rights Worldwide states "Lovingly ripped off from the classic film comedy Monty Python and the Holy Grail, MONTY PYTHON'S SPAMALOT retells the legend of King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table." Along with Laker girls, an Historian, the lovely Lady of the Lake, the Knights, and their trusty horses and servants bring this outrageous, uproarious, and incredibly entertaining story to life while they search for the Holy Grail. As they "always look on the bright side of life" they take on their quest narrowly avoiding the French, killer rabbits, and a bit of pant soiling.

The show has been edited to 90 minutes of sheer delight. Nothing has been lost from the sentiment of the original thanks to Eric Idle doing the edits himself. There will be no intermission and no food served on the green this year, but we are very grateful to be back at the barn and able to entertain you this summer. Please join us for the fun and frivolity, July 15-18.

We look forward to hearing you laugh once again.
